Re: In Re Independent Investigation Into the City of Rochester's Response to and Handling of the RPD's March 23, 2020 Use of Force Against Daniel Prude

Dear Ms. Green:

We write to correct a scrivener's error that appears in the September 21, 2020 subpoenas directed to the Mayor's Office, the City Council, and the Law Department and for which you accepted service.

The scrivener's error appears in the definition of "Documents" in each subpoena (paragraph 9 of the Definitions section in the Mayor's Office and City Council subpoenas and paragraph 10 of the Definitions section in the Law Department subpoena). In the first sentence of that definition, the term "RPD" appears in error and should be replaced by the name of the City entity to which the subpoena is directed. For example, in the Law Department subpoena, the corrected version of this definition should read: "The term "Document" means, without limitation, the following items which are in the possession, custody, or control of the Law Department whether printed or recorded . . . ."

We apologize for any confusion or inconvenience this error may have caused. Please confirm that you will accept this letter as a correction of this scrivener's error and that the subpoenas to the Mayor's Office, City Council, and Law Department will be interpreted and responded to accordingly.

Very truly yours,

/s

Andrew G. Celli, Jr.
