INSTRUCTIONS

1. If any Document responsive to the requests has been lost, destroyed or is otherwise unavailable, describe and identify each such Document by stating in writing: (i) the name(s) of the authors(s), the name(s) of the person(s) who received or viewed the original and all copies, and the date and subject matter, (ii) the last known custodian of the Document, (iii) the incident, event, or occurrence during which such Document was lost, destroyed, or otherwise became unavailable, (iv) each person having knowledge of the circumstances of it being lost, discarded or destroyed and (v) your efforts to locate each such Document.

2. If, in answering these requests, you claim any vagueness, confusion, or ambiguity in either the request or a definition or instruction applicable thereto, such claim shall not be utilized by you as a basis for refusing to respond, rather you shall set forth in a part of your response to such a request the language deemed to be vague or confusing or ambiguous, select a reasonable interpretation that you believe resolves the ambiguity, respond to the request using that interpretation, and explain with particularity the construction or interpretation selected by you in responding to the request.

3. Questions regarding the interpretation of these requests should be resolved in favor of the broadest possible construction.

4. These requests seek production of all Documents, in their entirety, along with any attachments, drafts, and non-identical copies. A Document with handwritten, typewritten, or other recorded notes, editing marks, etc., is not and shall not be deemed identical to one without such modifications, additions, or deletions.

5. Responsive Documents should be produced as they are kept in the usual course of business or organized and labeled to correspond with the categories in the requests, and identifying the name of the person from whose files the Documents were produced.

6. Wherever possible, all electronic Documents should be produced in their native format and/or as TIFs or PDFs and include all metadata. Do not convert the data to a form that is more burdensome and/or less searchable. If You convert data to TIFs or PDFs from native format, You must retain all metadata—including but not limited to the OCR database, Document demarcations, the date of the Documents, file name, the author of the Documents, the recipients of the Documents, the type of Documents, etc.—in a usable load file (Relativity or Concordance preferred with an option for images), together with links to text and native formats.

7. Wherever possible, the following fields of metadata should be produced, if available:

8. Reference to any natural person shall be deemed to include that natural person's agents, servants, representatives, current and former employees, and successors.

9. The singular includes the plural and vice versa, except as the context may otherwise require; any request propounded in the present tense shall also be read as if propounded in the past tense and vice versa; whenever a term is used herein in the present, past, future, subjunctive, or other tense, voice, or mood, it shall also be construed to include all other tenses, voices, or moods; reference to any gender includes the other gender; the words "any" and

“or” shall be construed as either conjunctive or disjunctive in such manner as will broaden as widely as possible the scope of any request for production; the word “all” means “any and all”; the word “any” means “any and all”; the word “including” means “including but not limited to.” Any ambiguity in a discovery request shall be construed to bring within the scope of the discovery request all responses that otherwise could be construed to be outside of its scope.

10. If you object to the production of a Document in relation to a specific request, state with particularity the basis for all objections with respect to such request. You should respond to all portions of that request that do not fall within the scope of your objection.

11. This request is a continuing one. If, after producing the requested Documents, you obtain or become aware of any further Documents responsive to this request or if additional information you or any persons acting on your behalf obtain would augment, clarify, or otherwise modify your responses, you are required to supplement your responses and produce such additional Documents.

12. Unless otherwise specified, the period of time covered by this subpoena is from March 23, 2020 to the date the requested Documents are returned.
